My Brother Knights,

At this time, I would normally be welcoming you and your families to the 117th Annual Knights of Columbus Kentucky State Convention. Wow, how our lives have changed over the last few months due to the coronavirus. For the first time in our 117-year history, we will be holding the Kentucky State Convention over the phone rather than in person.

The coronavirus pandemic has forced the entire world to stop doing much of what we have been doing for as long as we can remember. We have two choices. We can give up, or we can adapt and push ahead. The knights in Kentucky possess a fighting spirit and will not take the easy way out and simply give up. We are pushing ahead in these challenging times.

To the delegates of the 117th Annual Knights of Columbus Kentucky State Convention, you are making history. This may not be how you intended to hold the state convention, but you are going to be the first in our history to conduct the convention virtually. And no one will forget this convention for a very long time.

Usually, at the convention, we have the opportunity to celebrate the accomplishments that the councils throughout the state have achieved during the past year. We also, get to share a great deal of fellowship with our brothers that we don't get to see very often. This year's convention will be all business and will lack many of the good things we normally enjoy, but rest assured, we will be back together very soon. As soon as it is safe to our membership and their families. Some of the business that we normally do at the convention will be moved to the Organizational Meeting in July. One of those things will be presenting awards. Presenting awards to councils and individuals in recognition of the great things they have accomplished over the past year is one of the things I was looking forward to the most, but we will take care of that when it is safe.

I'd like to thank each of you for your patience and your adaptability as we move through these challenging times. You are truly the brotherhood's greatest assets and the Knights could not accomplish everything we do on a global, national, and state level without each of you leading your councils and supporting your fellow knights both here in Kentucky and around the world. You as council leaders, have the vision, the knowledge, and the experience to help us pave our way into the future. My respect and thanks go out to all of you.

Vivat Jesus,
Cameron Peck
State Deputy

Founder's Day

Cameron G. Peck
State Deputy
Kentucky State Council
Knights of Columbus

Worthy State Deputy and dear Brother Peck:

In my own name, and on behalf of my fellow Supreme Officers and Board of Directors, I extend greetings to you and all my brother Knights of the Kentucky State Council. In this time of worldwide uncertainty due to the coronavirus pandemic, it is prudent to conduct the business of your state convention virtually. Yet even amid the current disruptions, you and your brother Knights are called to be men of hope who must provide for the continued growth and good works of our Order.

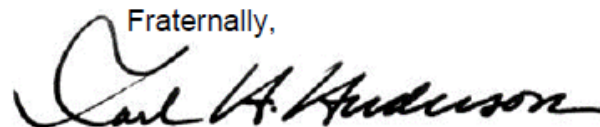

Each Knight participating in this convention has been entrusted with a sacred mission based on the vision of our founder, the Venerable Servant of God Father Michael J. McGivney. As his spiritual sons, we carry on the vital work of building up our parishes, passing on the Catholic faith in our homes and ensuring the financial protection of our families. Father McGivney's life and legacy should inspire us each day as we continue to pray fervently for his canonization.

As we mark our Order's 138th anniversary amid the COVID-19 pandemic, the need for the Knights of Columbus is greater than ever before. Through the Order's Leave No Neighbor Behind pandemic response program, we can reach out to our brother Knights and their families, as well as to fellow parishioners, neighbors and the broader community. Our world needs Knights who will step out into the breach as sterling examples of Charity, Unity and Fraternity, offering a helping hand where one may be needed during this challenging moment in history.

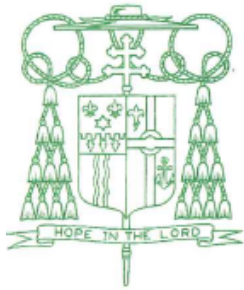

Finally, I express my sincere gratitude to you, the state officers, district deputies, council officers, general and field agents, and each brother Knight who has contributed to our Order's mission in Kentucky.

May Our Lady of Guadalupe watch over and guide your virtual proceedings and protect the health of every Knight and his family, and may Venerable Father Michael McGivney intercede for us all.

Fraternally,

Carl A. Anderson
Supreme Knight

117th State Convention
Lexington, KY

Dear State Deputy Peck:

May God bless you! It is with great joy that I convey my greetings to all who are assembled for the 117th Annual Knights of Columbus Kentucky State Convention in Lexington. While I cannot be present for this convention, my prayers are with you as you gather for this event with others associated with the Knights of Columbus from across the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

I greet you in a special way during these challenging days in which we are seeking to respond properly to COVID-19. The reality of this pandemic has challenged us to do everything possible through social distancing and scrupulous hygiene to mitigate the danger to others. As we honor the calls for social distancing, we are ever more aware of the gift and value of community within the church, and we seek new ways to reach out spiritually and socially to one another. My hope is that the members of the Knights of Columbus can provide a great witness to this outreach in these difficult times.

May the Lord bless each of you and may these days in Lexington be a time of renewed enthusiasm for the gifts you bring to the Church.

Sincerely yours in our Lord,

Most Reverend Joseph E. Kurtz, D.D.
Archbishop of Louisville

My dear Brother Knights:

Congratulations as you gather for the 117th Kentucky State Council Knights of Columbus State Convention in Lexington! Although I cannot be present with you at the festivities, I join you in prayer and I extend to each of you my gratitude for all the good that the Knights do throughout our Commonwealth. You continue to provide so many with a true witness to our Faith. Your dedication and loyalty to the Lord and to His Church does not go unnoticed.

Please know you are in my prayers. I will especially remember you as you gather together in convention.

Yours devotedly in the Lord,

Dear Brother Knights,

I warmly greet all of my Brother Knights as you gather for the Knights of Columbus Kentucky State Convention.

The legacy, witness and service of the Knights of Columbus are hallmarks of the Catholic Church of Kentucky. We are all indebted to this wonderful organization and recognize that your good works are visible across the state, most especially in our parishes and schools and service to the poor.

Keep up your mighty Gospel works and be assured of the prayer and support of a grateful church.

Yours in Christ,

Dear Knights of Columbus, Kentucky State Council,

Once again, dear Brother Knights, it is my privilege to welcome you from throughout the Commonwealth to Lexington for the annual state Convention. Filled with Easter joy and experiencing the beauty of Kentucky in the Spring, I pray that this convention be a graced time for all of you.

I must take every opportunity I can to express my deep gratitude to the Knights of Columbus for their dedication and service to the Church. I know that I can always count on the Knights to be present and of great assistance, especially in activities which promote the sanctity of human life and in support of the priesthood. It is hard not to brag about the good work of the Knights in my diocese.

As ever, I look forward to greeting you in person and ask your prayers for those who will be confirmed in their faith this weekend.

May the Spirit of the Risen Jesus watch over all of your deliberations and actions during this convention, and inspire in each of you a deeper relationship with Him and an ongoing commitment to further His mission through our Church.

Know of my prayers and of my gratitude for your prayers and support.

Peace and all good,

Most Reverend John Stowe, OFM Conv.
Bishop of Lexington

My dear fellow Knights and Ladies –

In the midst of this pandemic, as we experience a never before online Commonwealth of Kentucky Knights of Columbus State Convention, I welcome you. As your State Chaplain, please know that you have been in my thoughts and prayers. I continue to ask the Lord that He watch over and bless you and your loved ones in a special way and provide protection from this deadly virus. May we, together, seek His face and strive in our service to Him and one another, to continue to be role models of the Faith.

I am truly thankful to be part of a team of State Officers who have a deep love for the Lord and are desirous of serving Him and the Knights as men of virtue and distinction. The Commonwealth of Kentucky surely is blessed to have the Knights of Columbus members scattered throughout its cities and communities, as we strive to do our best to spread the Light of Christ through our local Councils. These Councils consistently have proven to be men who faithfully seek to live lives in service to the Lord and the vision of the Venerable Fr Michael McGivney. As Knights, we strive to be faithful to the truths found in the Roman Catholic Church and, in light of the teachings of Christ, to do our best to fulfil His call of service to one another and His Church. As St Paul challenges us, it is our duty to ensure that the widows and orphans are especially cared for through the Knights insurance plans. During this period, we have sought to be strong prayer warriors and to provide for the needs of others who have been impacted.

During this Convention, although we may not have the opportunity to renew past friendships, meet new members and officers or enjoy a festive banquet, let us pray that through our decision making, we be better informed in our knowledge and concerns of the Order. As we meet online, may we, in the spirit of Venerable McGivney, work toward the common goal of caring for the widow and the orphan through our service to one another and our obedience to God's Word. Let us also pray that this horrible pandemic will come to an end and next year be able to return to the normal Commonwealth of Kentucky Knights of Columbus State Convention we dearly enjoy.

Once again, may our Lord bless you richly!

Vivat Jesus!

Fr Mario Joseph Tizziani

Kentucky State Chaplain

Anne and I would like to thank all our brother knights and their wives for their help, leadership, compassion, and most importantly, their friendship over the last two years. It has been our pleasure to serve you for the last several years and especially the last two.

Whenever we have asked for help, you have overwhelmingly stepped up to take care of whatever was needed. We have never had a shortage of volunteers and the quality of your leadership has been second to none. We cannot thank you enough.

This has been a wonderful experience and we wouldn't trade it for anything. So many terrific life-long friendships have been formed. Although we cannot get together this weekend due to COVID-19, we look forward to seeing you all as soon as it is safe for everyone.

Vivat Jesus,
Cameron, Anne, Katie and Grant

Since 1903 through fraternal year 2019-2020 fifty-six (one member served two non-consecutive one-year terms) members have served as State Deputies. Thirty-nine are deceased. We ask your prayers for Gerald Roof who is experiencing major health issues. We pay tribute to Al Stoeckle our 94-year-old "elder statesmen". And in a very special way, we also want to celebrate the life and contributions of the late Father Roy E. Dentinger Former State Chaplain.
